

ThinkTank Theatre's Young Artists' Ensemble Company Intern Program Info to Know!!!

Who we are: ThinkTank Theatre is Tampa Bay's professional theatre company dedicated to creating high-quality theatrical productions and programs for our target audience – Tampa Bay's Youth and families!

What is the YAE: Our Young Artists' Ensemble (YAE) is a group of high school students from around the Tampa Bay Area who work with ThinkTank in an internship capacity. We are specifically looking for talented young performance and production track individuals to serve as members of our YAE Company for the remainder of our 25/26 season and on into our 26/27 season! As a YAE member, you'll have the opportunity to rehearse, understudy, perform, direct, design, stage manage and so much more alongside those theatre professionals employed in ThinkTank's Main Stage Productions. There are many incredible experiences that come with being part of the YAE Company, but the most significant is gaining a network of theatre professionals available to mentor you as you venture from high school to beyond.

- In-person Auditions/Interviews will be held Saturday, April 11th, 2026, between 12:30 and 4:00pm. The auditions will take place at Lab Dance Project located at:

- We will begin making offers the week of April 20th. If offered a spot, the deadline to accept is Monday, April 27th.
- There is yearly program fee – $350 – that can be paid in two parts: $175 by May 4th and the remaining $175 by May 18th. This yearly fee allows us to cover the cost of insurance, help with promotions and assist with budgeting for YAE members cast in our professional shows and other YAE production opportunities! There is no cost to audition. Scholarship Opportunities are available.
- New members are eligible to take part in our spring New Play Festival, our staged reading of Number the Stars in collaboration with the Florida Holocaust Museum and our summer Tandem Series production of The SpongeBob Musical with freeFall Theatre. These productions and events will take place throughout the months of May - August of 2026 and we are in the process of planning our 26/27 season. YAE members get the opportunity to be part of each of these productions and projects! (Visit ThinkTankTYA.org for our upcoming performances.)

FAQ:

- When it says the YAE is an internship, what does that mean? It means we focus on the professional setting. When you come to rehearsals or perform with ThinkTank, you are working as one of our professionals. This is not a classroom type experience by any means. We expect that you will continue educational growth outside of these rehearsal/performance opportunities with classes you might be taking at your school, through other educational theatre programs, or through private study.

- Do I have to be involved in all of ThinkTank's productions? That's the beauty of being a company member. If you can be involved, we will make sure you are part of the production; if you can't be involved, no worries. You still get all the benefits of being a YAE member and we'll see you for the next one! Plus, there are lots of ways to be involved in the show from a producing standpoint, as well. We can always use help with house management, social media, working or subbing backstage for a show, etc.

- What will happen in rehearsals and when will they be? We rehearse like other professional companies here in Tampa. For our Main Stage Productions, the commitment is usually 5 to 6 weeks. For a typical production, weeks 1-3 are for rehearsal, week 4 focuses on Tech and Opening Weekend, and weeks 5 and 6 are for the run of the show. Generally, our rehearsal schedule week 1 - week 3 is Tuesday - Friday 6:30 - 10:00 pm (if possible, YAE are released early), and Saturdays from 12:00 - 5:00pm. Sometimes we use Sundays as well. Tech week usually includes lengthier rehearsals, but dates are given well in advance, and we prepare our YAE for the heavier workload involved in this week. We also have opportunities for Understudy Performances which require some extra rehearsal time during week 5 to prepare for those performances! Our Cabaret Series and Playwrights Festival have a slightly modified rehearsal schedule, and the time commitment is generally 1 to 2 weeks.

- I'm a senior. Can I still audition? Absolutely! There is a discount available for those who are seniors, graduating in 2026, who are interested in auditioning.

- I'm an 8th grader. Can I audition? Unfortunately, no. All YAE Company Members need to be current high school students. This ensures that all YAE Members will have time to be involved in our program, because our schedule takes into consideration other high school activities that you may be involved in.

- I don't have a lot of theatre experience. Can I still audition? Yes! We love young people who have an earnest interest in theatre and what it means to work professionally in this field!

- Can I earn Bright Futures hours through the YAE? Yes, you can! We have guidelines on how to qualify service hours for the time you spend with ThinkTank during a production.

- What if I'm interested in multiple areas? We love when our YAE want to experience multiple production platforms and yes there is opportunity to do so. For your audition/interview you'll have to select one area - performance or production. During your interview, we can certainly chat about serving in multiple areas and what experiences you might have in each.

Check out the preparation guidelines on the page below. We are always excited when we get to talk about the YAE program, and we can't wait to add new people into the company! Please do not hesitate to reach out to us with any questions and we look forward to seeing you at auditions!
